The purchase price for the Vessel will be payable by cash in United States Dollars. The purchase price of the Vessel was determined by reference to market intelligence the Company has gathered from shipbrokers and its own analysis of recently concluded sale and purchase transactions of vessels of comparable size and year of built in the market, valuation from independent valuer and on the basis of arm's length negotiations with the Vendor.

The Group engaged Arrow Valuations, an independent valuer and an affiliate of Arrow Asia Shipbrokers Ltd., an independent shipbroking group, to provide a formal valuation certificate in respect of the Vessel. In respect of the valuation of the Vessel, the Company has reviewed the valuation certificate and discussed with Arrow Valuations about the valuation approach and methodology adopted in the valuation of the Vessel. As advised by Arrow Valuations, the market approach is adopted in the valuation of the Vessel where Arrow Valuations has considered the factors including (i) the quality and reputation of the shipbuilder; (ii) the configurations and specifications of the Vessel; (iii) the country where the Vessel was built; (iv) recent market activities including comparison with recent sales by age/size/quality of shipyard; and (v) the prices of similar vessels which are for sale but unsold.

Having assessed all the above factors, Arrow Valuations reached the opinion of the Vessel's evaluation which Arrow Valuations believed would reflect the market value of the Vessel at the date of the valuation. According to Arrow Valuations, the market value of the Vessel as at 28 March 2022 was US$25,500,000 (approximately HK$198,900,000).

We observe and monitor the sale and purchase market of second hand vessels, including recent market transactions of similar vessels between willing sellers and willing buyers in that prevailing time presuming the vessel free from all registered encumbrances, maritime liens and all debts, free of charter or any contract of employment, for cash payment on normal sale terms at that particular of time. In the process of gathering the market intelligence from shipbrokers, we receive market information on the sale and purchase market of second hand vessels on a daily basis from international shipbrokers. We also discuss with international shipbrokers frequently to gather market intelligence on what vessels are being put on sale, which owners are looking to buy or sell their vessels on a worldwide basis.

We look at recently traded value of vessels which are similar to the ones we are interested in purchasing, making adjustment depending on any expected difference in quality as well as timing of delivery, as well as referencing the overall market sentiment which is reflected in the Baltic Dry Index, an important economic indicator reflecting the supply and demand trends of global shipping market.

However, as each vessel is never identical, we will take into account the individual specification, maintenance quality and conditions of each individual vessel to consider its purchase. Similar to assets that has a second hand market, the factors to be considered in the analysis of recently concluded sale and purchase transactions, will be the timing of availability of the vessel to the new buyer, whether the shipyard that produce a vessel is reputable, whether a vessel is well maintained, and much most importantly is the expectation of the outlook of the industry in terms of potential revenue generating ability going forward.

It is currently expected that approximately 50% of the purchase price of the Vessel will be funded by bank financing and the remaining will be funded by internal resources of the Group.

The Directors consider that the purchase price of the Vessel is fair and reasonable and the Acquisition of the Vessel is in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.

REASONS FOR THE ACQUISITION OF THE VESSEL

The Group's principal activities are international ship chartering and ship owning. The Directors continuously review the prevailing market conditions of the shipping industry and monitor and adjust the Group's fleet profile as appropriate. Despite the recent improvement in shipping market, we continue to seek to fine tune the quality of our fleet, in particularly in terms of seeking to lower the overall age profile of our fleet. We try to strike as good as possible, the balance of additional maintenance costs that is associated with the aging of a vessel, the expected revenue generating ability and cargo flexibility when compared to younger vessels, the potential asset value appreciation of an asset, as well as the importance of ensuring we are financially nimble by monetizing suitable assets. We believe in being prepared at all times for future possible opportunities of redeployment of capital into other more suitable assets that may arise going forward while keeping leverage at comfortable levels. We will continuously monitor the market as well as our operations going forward and look out for opportunities to maintain a reasonably modern and competitive fleet, not ruling out any future disposal or acquisition of vessels and will make such decisions on an ad hoc basis to maintain a high financial flexibility and operational competitiveness.

The Vessel is grabs fitted Supramax for the transportation of dry bulk commodities. The Directors and senior management have been reviewing the individual specification, maintenance quality and conditions of the Vessel and consider the purchase price of the Vessel is reasonable. The Group currently owns twenty six dry bulk vessels which include two Post-Panamaxes and twenty four grabs fitted Supramaxes, and the existing total carrying capacity is 1,525,348 metric tons.

The Company's senior management has many years of operating in the dry bulk shipping industry, going through multiple cycles seeing ups and downs. The Company has vast experience and a deep knowhow from operating different class of vessels as well as contracting new vessels made by different shipyards, we have developed knowledge of how various parts of a vessel are made and how their quality differ, from the hull, deck, equipment such as onboard cranes, the pros and cons of engines made by different makers perform, the difference in quality of a second hand ship owned by different owners. All these experiences collected over the past years give us this industry knowhow.

When considering whether to acquire a pre-owned vessel for its ship chartering business, the Company's management would focus its decision on the physical conditions of the vessel that include the configurations, made, technical specifications, design, structures and fittings, main propulsion & manoeuvring and other key operation systems, quality and reputation of the shipbuilder, country where the vessel was made, age, deadweight/draft, holds/hatches, and cargo capacity, etc. The vessel's present operating parameter, maintenance of its hull and machinery are also main factors to consider.

The Company's management also takes into account when deciding whether to purchase a pre-owned vessel is the market conditions and sentiment. The decision of the Acquisition of the Vessel is driven by supply and demand for dry bulk vessels and based on arm's length negotiations with the Vendor. The Company is of the view that due to the economy recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic and increase in the demand for dry bulk vessels, the Vessel will be in high demand. This was a crucial factor in the Group's decision to purchase the Vessel. The Company reviewed the prevailing market conditions of the shipping industry and believes that an increase in the Group's fleet size is in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders as a whole given the outlook of the market.

Upon the completion of the acquisition of the Vessel, the Vessel will be chartered out to customers for the transportation of dry bulk commodities to receive charter hire and to generate chartering freight and hire income for the Group. The Company believes that the Acquisition of the Vessel will allow the Group to generate more operating income and increase the returns of the Company in the future.
