JIN - INSIDE INFORMATION

ACQUISITION OF A VESSEL

The Board of Jinhui Shipping and Transportation Limited announces that a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company entered into a memorandum of agreement on 10 July 2020 for the acquisition of a Supramax at a purchase price of US$3,950,000.

THE ACQUISITION

The Purchaser entered into the Agreement with the Vendor on 10 July 2020 for the acquisition of the Vessel at a purchase price of US$3,950,000. The Vessel will be delivered by the Vendor to the Purchaser between 10 July 2020 and 10 August 2020.

Information on the Group and the Purchaser

The principal activity of the Company is investment holding and the principal activities of its subsidiaries are international ship chartering and ship owning.

The Purchaser is a ship owning company and a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company as at date of this announcement. The principal activities of the Purchaser are ship owning and chartering.

Vendor

The Vendor is New Hyde Shipping Co., Ltd., a company incorporated in the Republic of Marshall Islands. Its principal activities are ship owning and ship chartering for maritime trade.

To the best of the Board's knowledge, information and belief having made all reasonable enquiry, the Vendor is an independent third party not connected with the directors, chief executive or substantial shareholders of the Company or its subsidiaries or any of their respective associates.

Vessel

The Vessel is a Supramax of deadweight 50,259 metric tons, built in year 2001.

Consideration

Under the Agreement, the purchase price for the Vessel is US$3,950,000 and is payable by the Purchaser as follows:

- (1) an initial deposit of US$395,000 will be payable by the Purchaser within one banking day after the date that (i) the signing of the Agreement; and (ii) the confirmation from the escrow agent confirming the account is ready to receive the initial deposit; and
- (2) the balance of US$3,555,000 will be payable by the Purchaser on the delivery of the Vessel which will take place between 10 July 2020 and 10 August 2020.

The purchase price for the Vessel will be payable by cash in United States Dollars. The purchase price of the Vessel was determined by reference to market intelligence the Company has gathered from shipbrokers and its own analysis of recently concluded sale and purchase transactions of vessels of comparable size and year of built in the market, and on the basis of arm's length negotiations with the Vendor.

We observe and monitor the sale and purchase market of second hand vessels, including recent market transactions of similar vessels between willing sellers and willing buyers in that prevailing time presuming the vessel free from all registered encumbrances, maritime liens and all debts, free of charter or any contract of employment, for cash payment on normal sale terms at that particular of time. However, as each vessel is never identical, we will take into account the individual specification, maintenance quality and conditions of each individual vessel to consider its purchase.

The Directors consider that the purchase price is fair and reasonable and the Acquisition of the Vessel is in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.

REASONS FOR THE ACQUISITION

The Group's principal activities are international ship chartering and ship owning. The Vessel is grabs fitted Supramax for the transportation of dry bulk commodities. The Directors and senior management have been reviewing the individual specification, maintenance quality and conditions of the Vessel and consider the purchase price of the Vessel is highly attractive. The Vessel is expected to generate steady stream of income for the Group. The Group currently owns eighteen dry bulk vessels which include two Post-Panamaxes and sixteen grabs fitted Supramaxes. Total carrying capacity will be increased by 50,259 metric tons to 1,136,333 metric tons after the completion of the acquisition of the Vessel.

It is currently expected that the purchase price of the Vessel will be funded by internal resources of the Group.
